THE board

The next meeting of the Jack Straw Memorial Foundation, Licensee of KRAB-FM, will be Tuesday, November 16, 7:30 pm at KRAB. The entrance to KRAB is at the rear of the building at 2212 S. Jackson Street. The meeting is open to the public.

At its October meeting, the Jack Straw Memorial Foundation Board of Trustees accepted the resignation of KRAB General Manager Jamie Garner. The Board then announced its appointment of Monti Hind to serve as an interim Executive Director.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR...

Dear Listeners and volunteers:

On October 20 the Jack Straw Memorial Foundation Board of Trustees appointed me to serve in the newly created position of Executive Director of KRAB-FM. From a personal standpoint, my appointment represents a great responsibility and a far-ranging challenge.

The board has given me several time-limited objectives of extreme importance. These objectives encompass programming, air quality, financial development, internal communication and relations, station image, and facilities improvement. In future issues of this guide I will try to expand upon these matters.

A number of people have asked me about my administrative background and my past involvement with KRAB. For many years I have worked as a manager and director of social service agencies. Although not radio stations, these have been non-profit, marginally funded organizations with underpaid and/or volunteer staffs. Each has had a board of directors committed to public service. In all of my past administrative positions I have had to find ways of doing a great number of things with limited resources and I have had to generate new sources of funding to maintain and improve operation quality. I imagine I will find a few similarities in my new position.

My personal involvement at KRAB began as an on-the-air volunteer (under a clever pseudonym) back in 1977, and I have played this role intermittently ever since. Because I am already familiar with the station from the inside out, I am happily aware of the bright possibilities offered by the scope of my new position. But for the same reason, I am also apprehensive about the extent of the difficulties I will face.

What I am sincerely counting on is the cooperation and goodwill of the staff and volunteers, the dedication and energy of the board of trustees, and the moral and financial support of the KRAB listeners. Given all of that, those objectives I mentioned may even become possible.

Monti Hind
KRAB-FM Executive Director

Two Benefits Set Nov.15:

Unpopular Rock Concert with Gary Wilson & host Stephen Rabow

HALL OF FAME in the University Ave.
Arcade — 8 p.m. $4.00 at the door.
Over 21 with I.D. only.

Nov.22: Ernestine Anderson with Red Kelly & his Band

KRAB will celebrate the end of its 19th anniversary marathon with an exceptionally fine benefit concert with Ernestine Anderson and Red Kelly and their back-up groups. The concert is scheduled for 8 pm on Sunday, November 22, at Parker's Restaurant, 17001 Aurora Avenue N.

Ms. Anderson first broke onto the jazz scene in Chicago in the early 1950's, performing at Robert's Show Lounge. She then toured with Johnny Otis and Lionel Hampton, and soon afterward made her first appearance in Europe, where she was greeted with wide acclaim. Since then Ms. Anderson has made other international appearances, in addition to performing at the Monterey Jazz Festival, the Concord Jazz Festival, and in Jazz lounges throughout the United States. She has been featured in TIME magazine, and she has been a noted recording artist throughout her career. Her latest record is titled "Don't make your move too soon" on the Concord Jazz label.

You can't make your move soon enough to hear Ernestine Anderson in this special benefit performance for KRAB at Parker's Restaurant. Tickets are priced at $10 a piece, with 80% of the proceeds going to KRAB-FM. They are available from Bass tickets, 282-1800. With no thanks to the Liquor Control Board, attendance is limited to age 21 and over, with I.D. required. Tickets are not available at KRAB.

MARATHON PLEDGE 324-3660 MARATHON PLEDGE

Pardon our delay, but our 19th anniversary is still on the track...scheduled arrival time is now November 13-22. During that period we'll be making an even greater on-the-air effort to remind you of what KRAB is all about, and to explain the very important role you the listener must play if we are to continue bringing you our special one-of-a-kind product: KRAB RADIO

There is no way to talk about our 19th anniversary marathon without sounding desperate. We are desperate. The same inflationary pressures that are squeezing you are crushing KRAB. And while you have had a raise in pay in the past ten years, KRAB has not! The KRAB annual membership fees have been the same for over a decade which is why this marathon will represent your last chance to become a KRAB member at the current rates: $25 in the U.S ($15 for those on low or fixed income) and $30 (covering extra postage costs) in Canada.

What does membership provide? First and foremost, your membership (yes, yours!) helps insure that KRAB will continue to provide a truly alternative radio voice in a broadcast area from Oregon to Canada. It insures that our almost indescribably unique blend of public affairs, music, arts, science, and multi-cultural broadcasting will continue to be yours for the listening at 107.7 FM.

In addition, your membership brings you a regularly mailed copy of the KRAB program guide. Our intention is to make this guide an effective means of helping you to anticipate programs of special interest and to plan your own personal listening schedule. The present issue includes some design and format changes made for that purpose. Special marathon programming is indicated on the back page and throughout the listings.

If you are a KRAB listener, even if you have only one "favorite" program, we need your financial support. If you think that someone else will carry your share of our expenses, it just isn't so. We appreciate complimentary letters and phone calls, but they won't pay our bills. (And speaking of paying bills, we are trying to set up a VISA and/or Master Card system for paying your KRAB membership fee. Stay tuned for further details.)

So...join KRAB on its 19th anniversary by listening to the marathon, November 13-22, and by pledging your support for the coming year. Remember, a "listener supported" station is just that...or it isn't anything at all.

we need premiums

WE STILL NEED PREMIUMS

KRAB needs merchandise or services to be given away as premiums to contributors during the marathon, November 13-22. Records, tickets, meals, clothes, appliances, robots, airplanes, massages, raft trips, snow tires, gift certificates, peanut butter, lift tickets, vaudeville acts, or any other thing or service that can be used to entice cash from someone is needed by KRAB. Please call 325-5110, Monday through Friday, between 9 and 5 and ask for Pam or Nashira. Remember, all contributions of premiums are tax deductible!

EXPERIMENTS IN DEMOCRACY

Can consumers run the stores they shop in? Can workers be their own bosses? Can whole sectors of our economy be organized on co-operative principles? "Experiments in Democracy" is a series of documentaries discussing these issues as it traces the history of cooperative enterprises in the Seattle area.

Seattle has a rich but little-known heritage of people working to meet their needs through cooperation. Based on extensive research in historical material at the University of Washington and interviews with over 70 scholars and participants in the cooperative movement, "Experiments in Democracy" explores the development of all types of co-ops---turn-of-the-century utopian colonies, co-op businesses owned by organized labor, plywood mills run by their own workers and a self-help league formed by thousands of the unemployed during the Depression. The series also delves into the roots of today's co-ops and explores their prospects for the future.

KRAB will air the series of six shows beginning on November 10 and continuing on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7-9 pm through November 24; a final show will air on December 3. Each show consists of an hour-long documentary, followed by a live panel discussion with an opportunity for listeners to call in. The series is co-produced by KRAB's Doug Honig and Patricia Van Kirk and is funded by a grant from the Washington Commission for the Humanities. KRAB members wishing a preview of the series are invited to attend a public forum on "The Future of Co-ops" to be held on Sunday, November 8 at 7:30 pm at the Friends Center, 4001 9th Avenue N.E. in Seattle.

Daniel Desiga was born and raised here in the Northwest, the son of a family who migrated here from Texas.

Desiga attended the University of Washington and graduated with a fine arts degree in graphic design.

Murals by Desiga are visible throughout the Northwest. Here in Seattle a large mural appears at El Centro de la Raza. In Oregon, several murals of his are on the Colegio Ceasar Chavez campus where Desiga served as head of the art department for two years.

He currently is involved in preparing paintings, drawings and murals for display throughout the region as part of the Washington State Touring Arts Project. A few of his works can be found in the Seattle mayor's office.

Desiga is currently a graphic artist with the Washington State Employment Security Department.

While the station does not espouse any particular cultural, political or social philosophy, it encourages programming that is diverse and often controversial. KRAB is a member of the National Federation of Community Broadcasters.
